Background	I am a dedicated and analytical individual with a strong interest in cultural dynamics and global interactions. Currently, I am pursuing a master's in intercultural management, which allows me to explore the complexities of communication, leadership, and collaboration across diverse cultural contexts. I excel in research, critical thinking, and effective communication, enabling me to analyze and present ideas with clarity. My studies have strengthened my ability to navigate multicultural environments, understand different perspectives, and develop strategies for fostering cross-cultural understanding. At present, I am focused on expanding my expertise in intercultural relations and applying my knowledge to real-world scenarios that require cultural sensitivity and adaptability.
