Background	My name is Vikram Kumar, and I am a confident, well-presented, and professional individual with a strong background in security operations, safety management, and driving. I have gained valuable experience working with reputed organizations in Malta, the UAE, and India, including Transguard Group LLC, Global Security Services Ltd., and E Boffa Tanti Ltd. I am skilled in access control, CCTV monitoring, site safety, and maintaining detailed security records, as well as providing excellent customer service in a professional and approachable manner. In addition to my security experience, I am also a licensed driver (categories AM, B, and B1) with hands-on experience in car and van delivery driving. My time as a delivery driver helped me develop strong route planning, time management, and responsibility skills, which complement my current work in security. I take pride in being reliable, disciplined, and team-oriented, with excellent communication and decision-making abilities. At present, I am working as a Security Officer with E Boffa Tanti Ltd. in Malta, where I am responsible for maintaining the safety and security of people and property while ensuring smooth operational support, including vehicle-related duties when required.
